Local wins Food Network competition; opens bakery in Waveland

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

In addition to celebrating her big win on the Food Network's Halloween Baking Championship, Waveland resident Renee Loranger last week opened Sugar Pop Baking Co.

The California native moved to Waveland in 2000.

Loranger said baking wasn't her first choice of career.

"I actually wanted to be an actress," she said. "But I kind of fell into the job of baking and I just really liked it and picked it up really fast. It was a way for me to still be artistic. So I stuck with it and mostly self-taught. If I want to learn it, I look it up and figure out how to do it."

Loranger said she began baking in California at grocery stores. When she moved to Waveland, she started working at Casino Magic — now Hollywood Casino — and built its baking program.

After Hurricane Katrina, the bakery program was closed and Loranger returned as a restaurant manager.

However, in 2010, the program was reinstated and Loranger worked as a pastry chef and then promoted to executive pastry chef in 2012.

Loranger described working at the casino as "hectic."

"It's very busy and very fast-paced," she said. "The grocery store was, too, and it's good practice for this (Sugar Pop)."

For season six of Food Network's Halloween Baking Competition, Loranger said, she kept an eye on the network's casting program.

Family dispute ends in shooting

On Sunday, Oct. 31, at 10:46 p.m., Waveland police officers were dispatched to 2010 Chesapeake St. in response to a shooting.

Upon arrival, officers located two people at the residence, Waveland Police Chief Mike Prendergast said in a press release.

One was identified as Joshua David Stewart who had a gunshot wound to his left arm, Prendergast said.

After officers spoke with Timothy Stewart, Prendergast said, they determined that Timothy Stewart and his nephew, Joshua Stewart had gotten into an argu-

"Timothy Stewart locked himself into a room to get away from Joshua," Prendergast said in the release. "Joshua proceeded to try and make entry into the room. Timothy retrieved a .22 caliber rifle and fired a warning shot at his nephew,

Network’s baking shows. “I’d love to host my own show,” Loranger said. “I love being on camera and I do not mind being the center of attention.”

The series has a “pre-heat” and “main heat” phase, the thriller challenge and the killer challenge, Loranger said.

For the thriller challenge, participants made a smaller treat, she said. For the killer challenge, it was something larger.

A participant was eliminated each week, she said, by the judges who are Carla Hall, Zac Young, and Stephanie Boswell. John Henson is the host.

The first time Loranger appeared on the show, she took home second place.

During her last appearance, she took home the $25,000 prize.

For the final challenge, participants were tasked with making a 24-inch stacked, tiered cake in five hours, she said.

The flavor Loranger chose was devil’s food cake with a sour cherry filling, hazelnut buttercream, and a hazelnut crunch.

The show was based on camp killer films from the 1980s, she said. The designs of the cakes were meant to take a look inside the mind of the killers.

“They had to tell that story as you looked at the cake,” Loranger said. “And it had to have a brain on top, an exposed brain on top.”

prize, which gave her the jumpstart she needed to open her own bakery.

Loranger said she always wanted to branch out on her own and “do my own thing.”

When COVID-19 began, Loranger said, she was laid off from her job at the casino.

“So there’s just no other time to do it,” she said. “I had to figure it out. So, I was baking at home for quite a while.”

But after she saw the location, she thought it would be a good idea to utilize the kitchen and space inside Waveland’s LiLi Stahler-Murphy Ground Zero Hurricane Museum, located at 335 Coleman Ave.

“I just love this building,” she said. “It’s got so much history. Everybody that comes in, they remember being here and watching somebody on the stage or being on the stage themselves or they know somebody that came here and went to the school.”

Loranger opened the bakery’s doors on Oct. 25 and she said she hopes that it will help bring more traffic to the area.

“I really hope that it brings more business to Coleman Avenue,” Loranger said. “I think that Coleman really needs to be brought back to life and I hope to be a part of that.”

Sugar Pop’s menu includes a variety of daily baked fresh items such as muffins, turnovers, danish, cookies, cakes, cupcakes, eclairs, and more. There is also a pastry of the day as well as packaged items for the holiday.

She said some of the current customer favorite selections include the orange cranberry muffins, the cinnamon pecan muffins, the danish, and her winning devil’s food cake.

Right now, the bakery’s hours are Monday through Saturday from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Loranger’s husband Darren also helps out at the bakery. The pair have a son and a daughter.

Loranger said she does take special orders such as cakes and cookies. People can order online or order in-person at the bakery, she said.

It’s not all that glamorous

Sometimes, I do get tired of society’s constant need to celebrate almost everything with an extravagant party.

When I was in my teens, I couldn’t wait to turn 21 so I could drink and party, because I thought it looked “cool.”

But, in reality, it’s not.

I did the clubbing and the drinking and would celebrate almost every occasion — either in my life or a friend’s — with such a trip.

It’s been more than two years since I’ve had alcohol. It wasn’t a conscious decision, I just for whatever reason lost the urge.

STAFF COLUMN

I’m sure my liver thanks me.

Maybe, on an unconscious level, after watching what my dad went through with kidney failure, subsequent transplant waiting list experience, and finally transplant, I knew that I wanted to try and take better care of my organs.

According to the liverfoundation.org, alcohol-related liver disease is caused by “excessive consumption” of alcohol. It is a common, but preventable, disease and women are more likely to suffer liver damage from alcohol than men.

There are three types of liver disease: Fatty liver, alcoholic hepatitis, and alcohol-related cirrhosis. The damage from the cirrhosis is irreversible and can cause fatal liver failure.

“In the early stages of the disease, liver damage may be reversed if the person stops drinking,” the website states. “Abstinence is the most important therapeutic intervention for people with this disease.”

Now, before people get their pitchforks out, I’m not telling people to not drink alcohol ever, just that it doesn’t hurt to be mindful of the side effects.

Some often develop alcoholism, which is the inability to control drinking due to both a physical and emotional dependence on alcohol.

There was a 1986 movie called “Under the Influence,” where Andy Griffith portrays an alcoholic father and how it destroys his family, his business, and his life. Good movie and for those that love the Andy Griffith Show, it’s quite the shock to see him perform such an aggressive and dramatic role.

Yes, it may be just a movie, but alcoholism can destroy families and lives.

Hancock History: Old Leetown Church

The church in Leetown is Lee’s Chapel No. 2 Baptist Church. Primitive log cabin churches in Caesar pre-dated the twentieth century Baptist churches. The first building of this church organization was constructed in 1929. Before that time, Sunday school classes were held in the old Leetown School house. Lee’s Chapel No. 2 Baptist Church has been mission-minded from the time it was organized. A second church building was completed in 1947. The present church building was completed in 1971. Local missions were pursued in Wolf Creek, Catahoula, Benville, Mt. Calvary, and Bay St. Louis. The church has also sent Baptist Missionary Association (BMA) missionaries to the Philippines.

Brother Chester Columbus Lee (1906-1985) was a Christian lay-worker in Leetown. He and his wife, Effie Stockstill Lee (1910-2004), established the Prison’s Bible Crusade. In 1973, Brother Chester went to the Union Prison in Rafters, Florida, to visit ninety-two men on death row and gave them bibles. Since then, thousands of bibles and Christian pamphlets have been distributed in the United States. Brother Chester acquired a ninety-nine year lease on 16th section land in Leetown. Although all 16th section lands, and any proceeds, are reserved for county schools, the county school board may lease it to individuals and collect rent on the property. In the 1980’s he created Lee Lake and the Lee Retreat there. Many churches in the area have used the site for retreats. Brother Chester also built on this site “Uncle Chester’s Log Cabin Fish House,” a very popular restaurant in the region for many years. The fish house served heaping platters of fresh Southern fried catfish.

Reverend Dosson Lavelle Lee (b. 1930) was the pastor of the Leetown Baptist Church from 1977 to 1998. Known as Lavelle Lee, he married Myra Bilbo (b.1930).

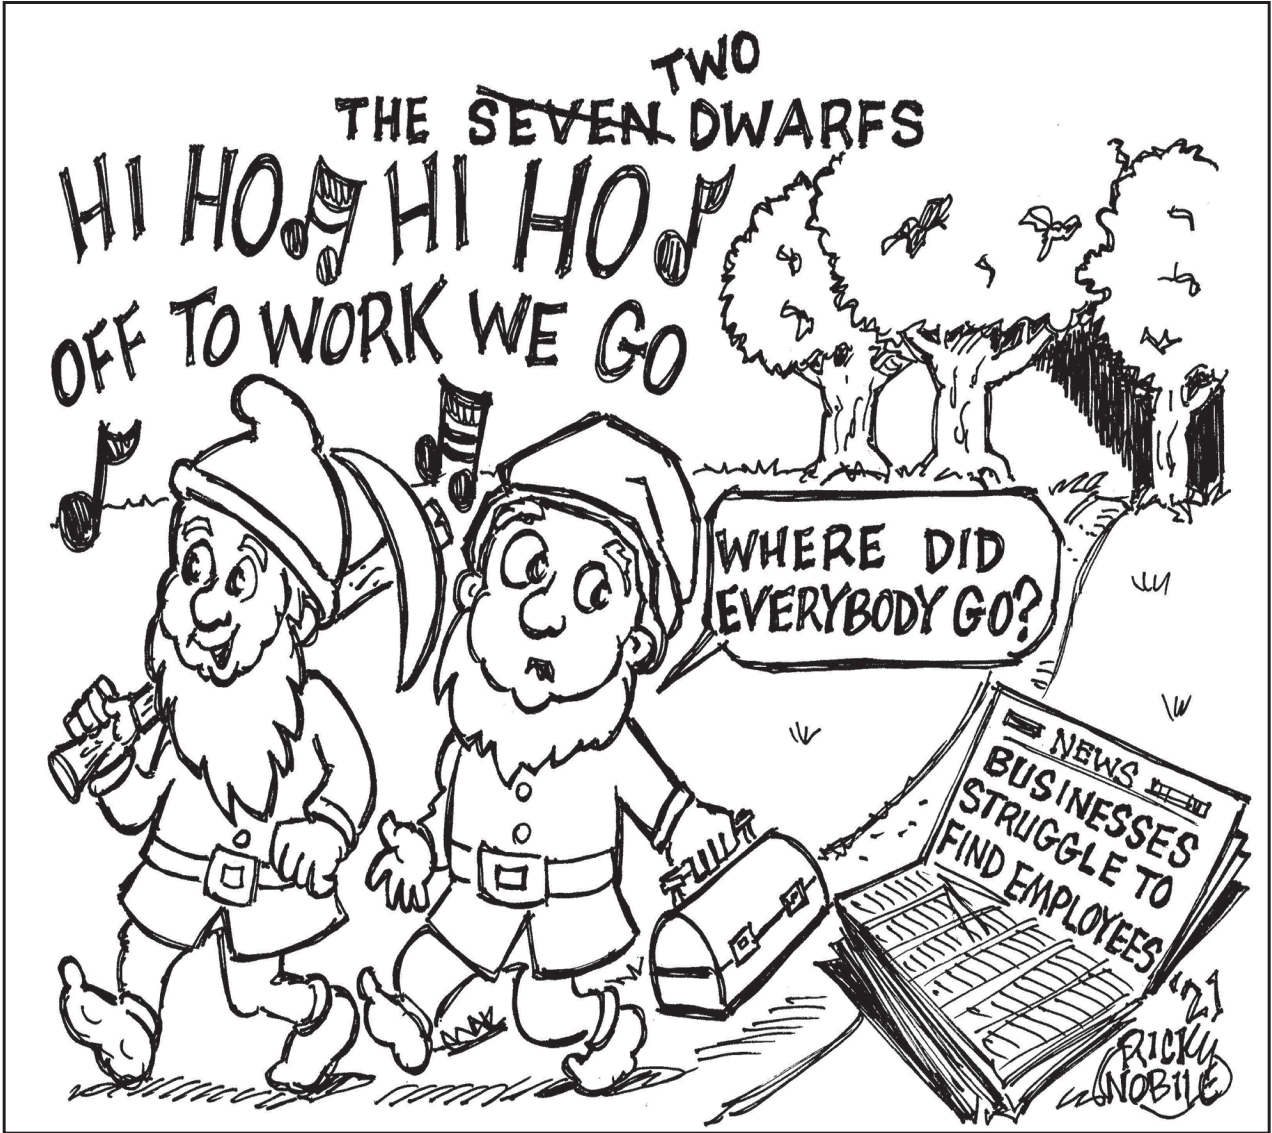

Lavelle was an important leader of the community and is now retired on Possum Fork Road. In 1986, Reverend Lavelle compiled an important history of Leetown entitled “The Family Register of Peyton Lee 1801-1873.” He is a direct fifth generation descendant of the aforementioned pioneer settler, Peyton Lee. This history is an important source of information about the early history of Leetown and their ancestors who came from North Carolina.

A land development project called Deer Park was financed and built by James Fleming and Sonny Stuart from Poplarville. Around 1980, the land was bought from the Whitoff family and subdivided into three hundred one acre lots in the first phase. The business plan was to attract buyers from New Orleans looking for affordable housing, such as a trailer, to be a vacation camp in the piney woods. The second phase of 150 parcels in the rolling hills next to the Catahoula swamp was designed for more high-end vacationers who would build stick frame houses.

Earthquakes in the Lower Mississippi Valley

Over two centuries ago, during the winter of 1811-1812 a series of earthquakes occurred in what was then the country’s western frontier. A great earthquake on December 16, 1811, marked the beginning of a set of earthquakes that occurred in northeast Arkansas and southern Missouri. The largest earthquakes were felt from Canada to New Orleans to the Atlantic coast. Earthquakes and aftershocks are estimated to have lasted 2 years. With no seismic stations in 1811, the exact number of earthquakes that occurred because of the New Madrid event remains unknown. The most noted damage was to the small settlement of New Madrid, situated along the banks of the Mississippi River in southern Missouri. As a result of the earthquake and erosion of the river shortly thereafter, the town literally slid, piece by piece, into the Mississippi River and was washed downstream. The present town of New Madrid is located near the original site, but behind a levee. Today, this zone is referred to as the New Madrid Seismic Zone in honor of this small frontier town.

Eyewitness accounts of the events were collected years afterward by several authors. The descriptions of the events are impressive. There were few settlers in the area, so damage to structures was low, but destruction of the local forests was extensive. The accounts describe surface waves that moved along the ground surface like ripples on water when a pebble is thrown into a pond. These ground waves moved through the countryside and caused damage to the woodlands as trees “rode over” the top of the wave. There was extensive caving of banks along the Mississippi River and on steep slopes away from the river. When these slopes failed, a mass of mixed trees and soil came to rest at the base of the slope. Islands in the Mississipppi River disappeared as far south as Island 94 near Vicksburg, Mississippi. Perhaps the largest factor affecting the woodlands was abrupt changes in the elevation of the land surface. Extensive areas extending from Arkansas northward into Missouri are often referred to as the “sunken lands.” In much of this area the land surface sunk as much as 20 feet, turning upland forests into swamps. The abrupt change from dry uplands to water-saturated swamp environments caused an extensive die-off of upland species of trees.

The New Madrid faults are still active and capable of generating damaging earthquakes. The Mississippi Emerinnocent child or other person.

It ALWAYS makes me so mad when I read stories about how the drunk driver walks away virtually unscathed from an accident, but leaves a trail of carnage in his or her wake.
According to Mothers Against Drunk Driving, drunk driving costs the U.S. $132 billion a year. About one-third of all drivers arrested or convicted of drunk driving are REPEAT offenders. In 2017, 10,874 people died in drunk driving crashes — that’s one every 48 minutes — and more than 300,000 were injured in drunk driving crashes.

And yet, drinking copious amounts of alcohol is encouraged and celebrated.
People also lost their minds when bars and clubs were closed during the early months of the COVID-19 pandemic.
There are organizations dedicated to telling youth that there are ways to have fun without using alcohol or drugs. But yet, when they hit that magical age of 21, (you know when the law tells people they are allowed to put a substance in their body) it’s encouraged. Why even teach them that there’s more to life than drinking at all, then?
There is the outrage when someone is killed by a drunk driver or someone is abused by an alcoholic, but nothing about ways to prevent it. If anything, some people will give potential drunk drivers a heads up, posting about where law enforcement officers have set up checkpoints. How shameful. If there’s going to be someone on the road driving drunk, I would rather have them stopped, than give them a warning. They could take another route and kill someone.

At the end of the day, it’s about being responsible and controlling oneself when it comes to alcohol consumption.
Believe me, alcohol doesn’t help you find a new job when you’ve been laid off (been there, done that), it doesn’t help ease the pain of losing a loved one, it doesn’t help with mental health, and it shouldn’t make one “cool” or “popular” for being able to consume the most drinks in one sitting at a party.

When it comes to drinking and driving, don’t do that either. Find a designated driver or a taxi service. Don’t get behind that wheel.
Maybe, just maybe, we should also stop glamorizing it, because it can also have real negative effects on the body.
Take if from someone who has watched a loved one suffer from organ failure. It’s not an easy road. If you can take the steps to try and prevent that from happening than you should. And if you don’t and want to cry about needing an organ donation, don’t do that either. If you’re not going to help yourself, then maybe you don’t deserve the most amazing gift of organ donation.

church for fifty years. He is a deacon of the church and a community activist who reports that in the old neighborhood around the church most of the old-timers were named Lee or Stockstill. He married Diane Fleming (b. 1950) who served people through a Ministry of Mercy carrying food and visiting the sick and suffering. Rob Brignac was also a car mechanic who provided invaluable assistance in the preparation of this article.

Deacon Brignac reports that a church in small communities like Leetown provides the nucleus or cultural matrix that perpetrates the life and character of the neighborhood. Neighbor helps neighbor, and the inhabitants look upon one another fellow farmers or artisans like family. This spirit, bound by a shared religion, was present in one form or another from the early days of pioneer yeoman farmers in the Catahoula Creek basin. In the last fifty years, Leetown has tripled in population. Other neighboring communities such as Caesar, Anner, and Crane Creek have diminished in size since early pioneer days and become virtual ghost towns.

In conclusion, the history of Leetown spans a period of 170 years. Important families such as the Lees and the Resters have populated the village for over five generations producing many descendants who to this day remain on the land settled by the first pioneer families. The Leetown Church has played an important role in the lives of the settlers and farmers who have woven a rich history of the development of the rural lands in the northern part of the most southern county in Mississippi, Hancock County.

HOWARD DOUGLAS DORRIS

Howard Douglas Dorris, age 71, passed away Thursday, August 19th, 2021, in Kiln, Mississippi.

Howard was a kind and intelligent man who was friendly to everyone and everything. He had an amazing knack for mechanics, and could fix or build just about anything. He enjoyed having friends over to work in his shop, and he especially loved riding and restoring motorcycles.

Howard loved his wife, Georgia, and their furbabies. He enjoyed the simple life in Kiln, MS, and never cared what anyone thought about him. He was simply, honestly Howard.

Howard retired as an Electrician. He learned the trade from going on service calls with his father, who learned it from his father. Howard passed this knowledge down to his nephew, Joel Dorris. Joel is training his own sons in the trade as well. Howard practically raised Joel, and felt that his nephew was his greatest accomplishment.

Howard was a Vietnam veteran. He joined the Navy and spent most of his days in the ship's boiler room, rarely seeing daylight. His time there caused the lung issues that ultimately lead to his death. He never complained, though, and stayed positive until the end, proud of the life that he lived. Howard was a dreamer and an inventor, a wonderful provider and an inspiration to many.

He will be so missed.

Howard is preceded in death by his mother, Ruth Weller Blue, his father, William Bryant Dorris II, and his brother, William Bryant Dorris III. He leaves behind his wife of 42 years, Georgia Goodell, his nephews Joel (Jaimee) Dorris and Sunshine Dorris, his great niece Mary Kaytlin Dorris, his great nephews Joel Dorris Jr, Hayden Howard Dorris, Olin Wyatt Dorris, his best friend Trapper, and his dogs Bunny, Caesar, Lola and Sadie.

A remembrance service will be held Saturday, November 20th, at 2pm, at the Legends of the Bayou RV Park, 3292 Washington St, Bay St Louis, MS 39520. We will celebrate Howard's birthday and his life.

Man jailed for alleged armed robbery at BSL Family Dollar

SEA COAST ECHO

Bay St. Louis Police Chief Gary Ponthieux Jr. announced that a man who allegedly robbed the Bay St. Louis Family Dollar store last month has been captured.

"On Oct. 17, 2021, at approximately 12:50 p.m., officers of the Bay St. Louis Police Department responded to Family Dollar, located at 295 Highway 90, after receiving multiple complaints of an armed subject," Ponthieux said in a press release Monday. "Officers made contact with Joshua Nichols, a 41-year-old white male of Prairieville, AL, and placed him under arrest without incident.

It was determined Nichols took merchandise from the business after brandishing a firearm to employees."

Nichols was charged with Armed Robbery, Possession of a Stolen Firearm, and Possession of a Weapon by a Convicted Felon, Ponthieux said. He is being held at the Hancock County Jail in lieu of a $125,000 total bond set by Municipal Court Judge Stephen Maggio.

patch radio traffic and learned of a male that had been shot," Prendergast said. "Richardson quickly responded to the scene and began rendering medical aid to the victim. Agent Richardson located the victim's wound on his upper right arm and blood was profusely exiting from it. Agent Richardson quickly applied two separate tourniquets to the victim and also applied hemostatic gauze (quick clot) to both the entry and exit wounds creating a pressure bandage and maintained pressure until medical personnel arrived on scene."

Prendergast said that emergency medical personnel described Richardson's actions as "nothing short of life saving."

"The victim, Brian Jones, Jr., is alive today as a result of the extraordinary efforts of Agent Richardson," Prendergast said.

Mississippi Crime Stoppers Coordinator Lori Massey presented the award to Richardson on Tuesday.

guidelines for the use of booster doses.

"Qualifications are really based on what your initial or your primary vaccine series was," Byers said. "If you received two doses of Moderna or two doses of Pfizer as your primary vaccine, and it's been at least six months since you've completed that series, and you fall into one of the following categories. You're 65 or older, you're a resident in a long-term care setting, you're over the age of 18 and you have underlying chronic medical problems that increase your risk of having severe outcomes if you're infected, or if you are over the age of 18 and you work in a higher risk occupation that increases your risk of exposure and potential for transmission such as a healthcare worker. Then you are eligible for a booster shot. If you received Johnson & Johnson as your initial primary vaccine, one dose, and you've been two months or more past that dose and you're over the age of 18, you are eligible for a booster shot."

Byers said that there can be "mixing and matching" of the booster shots and is allowable for all three versions of the vaccine.

"We want everybody who's eligible for a booster to go ahead and get one," Byers said. "We know that over time, immunity may wane. The booster dose is a way to give you some additional protection for a longer term to help reduce the risk of infection, but also reduce the risk of hospitalization or more severe outcomes."

Byers said the focus is not just on boosters, but still important to focus on getting as many people as possible to take the primary vaccine.

"Remember that right now, currently, anybody over the age of 12 is eligible for the vaccine, Pfizer or Moderna, or Johnson and Johnson," Byers said. "If you haven't been vaccinated yet, we encourage you to please go ahead and get vaccinated as quickly as you can. Remember, it takes a couple of weeks for your immune system to provide you full protection after you've been vaccinated. Last holidays, we saw a bump in our activity that eventually led to a pretty large surge over the winter months. Let's try to avoid that if we can. We know the vaccine is our best bet."

Craig said that county health departments have both the Pfizer and Moderna vaccines available.

Beginning Monday, Nov. 1, the county health departments will begin offering Moderna booster shots as well as Pfizer.

Anyone interested in making an appointment for the booster can visit www.covidvaccine.umc.edu.

The Johnson and Johnson vaccines are not available in county health departments, Craig said.

Craig said that people can also receive their boosters at physician offices, pharmacies, and other vaccination partners.

Visit the MSDH website at ww.msdh.ms.gov.healthhms.com or www.vaccines.gov for vaccination locations.

Craig said that free or no-cost COVID-19 testing is available in all counties in Mississippi.

"Most COVID testing is done through our partners, but for 43 counties with little to no free or no-cost testing, we continue to operate drive-thru testing in parking lots at our county health departments," he said.

Craig said that hospitals throughout the state continue to report decreases in COVID hospitalizations and COVID patients in ICU.

"We want to thank all these healthcare heroes for their efforts during the Delta surge," he said. "But also, please remember that COVID's still in Mississippi and to help these heroes and our hospital systems, the best thing we can do is get vaccinated. It's simple, it's free, it's safe, and vaccination opportunities are widely available."

Craig said that MSDH will continue to help cities, organizations, businesses, etc. that are interested in hosting a COVID vaccination event in their communities. For more information, call the MS COVID-19 hotline at 877-978-6453 or email vaccinevent@msdh.ms.gov.

Monoclonal antibodies treatment can reduce the risk of hospitalization due to COVID-19, Craig said. For more information about monoclonal antibodies treatment, speak to healthcare provider or visit www.healthhms.com.

Byers said that there have been continued declines in case numbers and deaths over the past few weeks.

"We're encouraged by those continued declines and hope that we continue those downward trends," he said. "This has helped maintain our healthcare capacity. We've seen less pressure on the nursing homes from outbreaks as well. Less pressure on our K-12 settings as well regarding the number of cases that we're seeing."

who proceeded to break down the door. Joshua charged at his Uncle Timothy and in return, Timothy shot his nephew in the arm."

Joshua was transported to Ochsner Medical Center, Prendergast said. After his release, he was transported to the Hancock County Jail early Monday morning.

According to the Hancock County Sheriff's Office website, Joshua David Stewart was charged with two counts of contempt of court; two counts of simple assault; and one count of burglary.

The incident is under investigation, Prendergast said.

vehicle fled while disregarding law enforcement emergency lights and sirens, ultimately striking and destroying a business sign and fence, causing the vehicle to be disabled."

Officers identified the driver of the vehicle as Sarah Pittman, a 43-year-old woman from Bay St. Louis, Ponthieux said.

Pittman was charged with Felony Fleeing and Eluding, Driving Under the Influence, and other traffic violations, court records show. She was held at the Hancock County Jail in lieu of a $16,750 total bond issued by Municipal Court Judge Stephen Maggio.

Principal Marilyn Pigott said, “What an honor this is for Alyssa, and this is truly a reflection of her outstanding dedication and diligence towards her academic success. “These students represent a valuable national resource; recognizing their accomplishments, as well as the key role their schools play in their academic development, is vital to the advancement of educational excellence in our nation. We hope that this recognition will help broaden their education opportunities and encourage them as they continue their pursuit of academic success,” added the NMSC spokesperson.

Memorial Launches 24/7 Telehealth through MemorialConnectNOW

SEA COAST ECHO

Memorial announced today the ability for qualified patients to virtually contact a provider within minutes, at any time, about minor illnesses and injuries. While meeting virtually with a Memorial provider, qualified patients will receive a diagnosis and treatment plan. If medication is required for treatment, providers will send a prescription to the nearest pharmacy for pick up.

The process of setting up a virtual appointment is easy:

Patients (or guardians) are asked to call 228-867-5000 to request an on-demand video appointment.

After scheduling the visit, the patient will get a text message with a link to access the MemorialConnectNOW video conference.

Patients then start their private, face-to-face visit on their preferred device from anywhere that has internet access.

“Memorial is now expanding telehealth coverage to 24-hour availability. Virtual on-demand visits will give our community access to a healthcare provider from home any hour of the day, any day of the week,” said Memorial Telehealth Clinic Practice Manager Roni Owens. She continues, “Providing immediate care that can eliminate an emergency room visit or assist with getting treatment sooner is something we are very proud of. Quality access to healthcare is our number one goal.”

Insurance is accepted, and terms, conditions and prices vary based on service and coverage. Cash pay options are also available. If patients need more advanced care for chronic issues such as heart disease, COPD or diabetes, they are encouraged to visit one of Memorial’s Primary Care Providers.

Memorial is committed to providing exceptional care conveniently. To learn more, visit: wearememorial.com/connect-now.

2022 Leo Seal Innovative Teacher Grant Applications Available Online

SEA COAST ECHO

Outstanding South Mississippi K-12 teachers can apply online at <https://www.mgccf.org/grant-opportunities/> for the 2022 Leo W. Seal Innovative Teacher Grants to fund original learning projects that complement classroom lessons and align with state educational objectives.

Applications for 2022 grants are due November 12, 2021.

Funded by Hancock Whitney and administered by the Gulf Coast Community Foundation (GCCF), the Seal grants recognize up to 10 outstanding teachers with individual one-time $2,000 grants to activate creative teaching proposals enhancing students’ learning experiences. Certified teachers at public and private schools in the eight Mississippi counties with Hancock Whitney locations—Forrest, Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, Jefferson Davis, Lamar, Madison, and Pearl River—are eligible to apply.

To apply, teachers must complete online letters of intent which detail how their proposed projects provide innovative approaches to helping students learn and support state educational requirements. GCCF will review applications and invite selected teachers to submit full grant proposals in early December.

GCCF also coordinates selection of grant winners by an independent committee of business, community, and educational representatives not affiliated with Hancock Whitney.

Hancock Whitney established the Seal grant program in 1994 as a permanent endowment of the GCCF Pat Santucci Friends of Public Education program. First presented in 1996, the awards pay tribute to the community commitment and leadership of Leo W. Seal, Sr., the bank’s president from 1932 until his death in 1963, and his son, the late Leo W. Seal, Jr., the bank’s chief executive for 45 years. Throughout their lives, both men championed countless economic and educational opportunities across the Gulf Coast.

Our Spiritual Quest

By C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN.

C. Gerald Richardson, D. Min.

We live in a complicated and divided culture.

There are many serious issues on which people strongly disagree. Many times these issues divide families, friends, church members, and they often create painful moments of separation and alienation among people who honestly care for each other.

Demonizing others is often viewed as an appropriate approach to dealing with differing opinions.

An important question to ask could be, “what does spirituality have to offer to this critical problem?”

Spiritual life for many is the ultimate issue. It guides the lives of numerous people. Judeo-Christian teaching is essential to much of the thinking in our national culture. What does it teach?

*God is on the side of those who have great need. The biblical witness is replete with examples of the call of God to care for the poor and the call for help to those whose lives are affected by poverty. There may be different views on how to do this, but the spiritual call to do it is clear.

*Lifting up the fallen, caring for the downtrodden, and offering hope for the least among us is an essential element of biblical spirituality.

*Working for peace among people is a basic feature of spirituality. While war may be seen as an essential institutional need by many leaders, it is not the will of God. The will of God is for peace, love, understanding, and grace.

*Providing care and hope for the sick, the disabled, and others who are on the margins of life is a basic element of orthodox spiritual faithfulness.

*Love is the standard for people of spiritual faith. The primary question for the spiritually motivated is not “what is good for me?” It is “what is good for my neighbor?”

There are other examples of spiritual direction for people of faith. The point is not the “list”, but it is the attitude and the spirit of people.

These issues are not partisan. They are not based on economic systems. They do not conform to social or cultural norms. They flow from a centuries old recognition of spiritual values which have guided us and molded our lives. We have not always lived up to them. There is a good chance that we will fail them in the future. We are human after all, and we certainly often fail to attain the highest ideals to which we aspire. Our hope is not that we will achieve perfection. Rather, it is that we will recognize the importance of spiritual goals, be willing to work on them, and maybe most of all, enter into honest dialogue with others to look for ways to live together with respect, even when we disagree.

A quote from the ancient text of Psalm 146 may guide us.

“Who gives justice to those who are oppressed, and food to those who hunger.

The Lord sets the prisoners free; the Lord opens the eyes of the blind;

The Lord lifts up those who are bowed down; The Lord loves the righteous;

The Lord cares for the stranger; he sustains the orphan and the widow, but frustrates the way of the wicked.”

May such efforts be blessed with grace.

Meet Simmy. This beautiful gal is an American Staffordshire Terrier/Border Collie mix who delights us all with her fun loving spirit and sweetness. She loves romping-n-playing in our doggie exercise yard with our volunteers, and once she gets "the zoomies," watch out...she is FAST! A home with a fenced backyard is a must, as she enjoys outdoor playtime as much as she loves cuddling with our volunteers. Simmy came in wearing a pink studded collar with lots of "bling," so we know she was part of a family very recently. Why her owners didn't come looking for her, we will never know. But, this sweetie is ready to join her true forever family, whether it be a single person, couple or a family with kids. She will most definitely be a treasured addition. If you'd like to meet Simmy, please stop by the Hancock County Animal Shelter during our visiting hours, Mon-Fri 10am-3pm (Tues 12pm-3pm), or call our front desk at 228-466-4516 to make an appointment. Please bring your family dog(s) and children along for the visit to ensure compatibility. You will fall in love with this adorable, amazing girl.

Bay St. Louis Little Theatre The Beverly Hillbillies Final Weekend

SEA COAST ECHO

The Bay St. Louis Little Theatre is grateful to the community for the enormous support given to its comeback season after the pandemic forced a stoppage of performances. The Board of Directors has chosen the comeback season to be ‘A Season of Comedies.’ To open the new season, the comedy hit is the iconic “The Beverly Hillbillies.” “This is the perfect comedy to bring to our community after a season of pandemic scare and isolation. I found myself laughing out loud while reading the first page of the script,” stated Board member Clayton Pennylegion. Based on the rehearsals, laughter is promised throughout the show. The show originated from the TV series created by Paul Henning. The playscript was adapted by David Rogers. The TV series was a top rated show for its nine-year run on TV. The show’s cast includes Lex Mauffray, Lana Price, Sydney Grove, Michael Schultz, Clayton Pennylegion, Nancy Moynan, Genie Talbert, Terry Cullen, Chris Cochran, Sylvia Hanes, Kimberly Schmotzer, Jonah Schmotzer, Irv Hansen, Jim Codling, Kellie Noel, Gail Trahan, and Karen West. The show is produced and directed by Cheryl Grace. Paul Bernard is the assistant director. Maggie Wooten is the stage manager. Assistant stage managers are Barry Newman and Jeff Cabe. Assisting in props, costumes, and show research are Paul Bernard and Gail Trahan. Dean Noel is in charge of set design and construction. Phillip Dutton will manage lights and sound. Clayton Pennylegion creates sound effects and cast poster. As was mentioned in the initial promotion of the show “This promises to be a sell-out show!” and indeed it was. The show sold out its first two weekends and has been held over for two additional weekends. Additional shows were added to accommodate the overwhelming reception of the community. The show will continue for its fourth and final weekend on Friday, November 5 at 8 p.m. and Saturday, November 6 at 2 p.m. Doors open one hour before showtime. Seating starts 30 minutes before the show. Tickets for the show can be purchased online at bsllt.org. Ticket fees are $20 for Adults. Fees for Seniors 65+, Active Military, First Responders, Veterans, and Students with ID are $14. Children 12 and under are $8. Seating reservations can be made by calling the Little Theatre at 228-467-9024 or email the Little Theatre at info@bsllt.org. Reservations for seats are recommended for all ticket holders including season ticket holders to be able to accommodate the show’s audiences. Call the Theatre if handicap seating is required. The Little Theatre accepts check or cash when paying for tickets at the door. The Little Theatre has responded to the requests of the community to be able to accommodate audiences during this Covid time. Tigers are playoff bound

BY MAURICE SINGLETON
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

For the second time in the history of Bay High football, the Tigers are hosting a playoff game. The Tigers clinched the second place spot in District 8-4A with a 22-21 win over Stone County.

The Tigers got a little help from an unlikely opponent - Pass High - as the Pirates defeated Greene County on Thursday night. Greene County shut out the Tigers 42-0 earlier in the season, and the Tigers defeated Pass High two weeks ago.

The Tigers (7-3, 2-2, district) had to come from behind twice in their final regular season game with a whole lot on the line. Bay High answered a Tomcats' score midway through the fourth quarter with a score of their own on the first play from scrimmage as Carmello Simpson broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run, which brought the Tigers within one point of the Tomcats.

The Tigers opted for the 2-point conversion, and once again they went to Simpson who went into the end zone untouched to give the Tigers the win.

"I had nine strokes and twelve heart attacks this week, stressing, trying to get these guys in the right state of mind," said Tigers' coach Jeremy Turcotte. "We had so many distractions. We had to move homecoming; we had to move senior night."

"I told them before the game that I didn't care about the score because I just wanted to watch them go out and play their backs off, and if they did that, everything would turn out alright," said Turcotte.

And the Tigers did just that against a formidable opponent. Stone County would get on the scoreboard first with a 13-yard Daylon Collins' carry, followed by a two-point conversion pass for an 8-0 lead with 3:53 remaining on the first quarter clock.

The Tigers' defense held off the Tomcats on their next three possessions, getting the ball back on downs, followed by an Ashton Lang interception, and then another fourth-down denial.

The Tigers scored their first touchdown of the night as time expired in the first half. Ladner connected with Bedford from 7 yards out. The 2-point conversion pass attempt failed. Stone County led 8-6 at half-time.

Simpson was key for the Tigers on the second half opening drive as the senior tailback would carry on seven of 8 plays, including a 9-yard burst on the first snap, a 14-yard change of direction run, and a 6-yard carry for the touchdown. The only play he wasn't directly involved in was a 23-yard pass play from Xander Ladner to Bedford.

Ladner also connected with Bedford for a 2-point conversion pass to give the Tigers a 14-8 lead.

Stone County capped a 7-play drive late in the third quarter with a 3-yard pass play for a touchdown. Their 2-point conversion attempt failed, and the game was tied at 14-14 at the end of three quarters.

Simpson had another big run on the Tigers' first snap on their ensuing possession, but the drive stalled after they were backed up on a quarterback sack and the Tigers were forced to punt as they faced a fourth-and-17 for a first down.

Stone County responded, putting together an 11-play drive to go 91 yards and a touchdown, converting a 12-yard pass play for the go-ahead touchdown and a 21-14 lead with 5:09 left on the game clock.

Bedford returned the ensuing kickoff 10 yards to the Tigers' 46 yardline, setting up the Simpson score that would win the game.

Simpson would lead Tigers' rushers with 160 yards on 17 carries and two touchdowns and a 2-point conversion carry. Noah Cutter would add 80 rushing yards on 12 carries.

Biloxi capitalizes on onside kick in win over Hancock

BY MAURICE SINGLETON

Hancock scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and led Biloxi by two scores (Hancock 29 - Biloxi 20) with just under five minutes to go in their game in the Kiln on Friday, but the Indians scored two touchdowns after that on their way to a 33-29 win.

"I'm so proud of them. I hurt for them," said Hawks' coach Neil Lollar. "Unfortunately the scoreboard does not show it tonight, and it hadn't for several weeks now. But for them to come in each and every day, and to compete and know that we're right on the cusp of things, and we can't flip one around for us."

"The thing is, we've got to finish these next four days out strong and give us an opportunity on next Thursday," added Lollar.

"The onside kick was huge," said Lollar. "Because if we got it back there, we knew we could run the ball."

Hancock led 16-13 after three quarters of play, but Biloxi capped an 11-play drive with a 3-yard touchdown run to regain the lead at 20-16 with 10:03 remaining on the game clock.

The Hawks' offense responded with a 7-play, 57-yard drive that included a 16-yard pass play from Brandon King to Pierre Fowler and three Cameron Miller rushes of 8, 14 and 4 yards, the latter to the Biloxi 9 yard line. King would score on the very next play on a 9-yard keeper for the touchdown. Finn Cowann's PAT kick gave the Hawks a 23-20 lead with

Biloxi mishandled the ensuing kickoff and Jasper Talley recovered the football at the Biloxi 27 yardline, giving the Hawks excellent field position. The Hawks put together a four-play scoring drive featuring a 7-yard carry by Fowler and three Miller totes of 3, 16 and 1-yard for the touchdown. The PAT kick failed, but the Hawks led 29-20 with 4:50 remaining on the game clock.

Biloxi started their next possession at their own 22 yardline. On the first four snaps, they picked up two first yards and a touchdown and a two-point conversion. Bedford led receivers with 3 receptions for 36 yards for a touchdown and a two-point conversion.

Kendall Smith led the Tigers with 9 tackles, followed by Tysen Hawkins, Bedford, Carson Moran and Devin Gaspard with 7 tackles each. Larry Lee finished with 6 tackles.

Ashton Lang recorded an interception with a 15-yard return. Lang and Moran each forced a fumble and Ziron Brown recovered a fumble for the Tigers.

The Tigers will host Quitman on Friday at J.D. McCullough Stadium Tank Williams Field in the first round of the 4A state playoffs.

Jaguars race past SSC 54-20

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The Jefferson Davis County Jaguars wasted little time showing what they planned to do in their division match-up with Saint Stanislaus last Friday evening. And, that was run the football.

The Rocks (4-5, 3-2) started the game with the football and took a slim early lead on a Evan Noel 47-yard field goal 3-0.

The Jaguars answered with a 56-yard scoring run followed by a 9-yard scoring run after an SSC fumble to give Jefferson Davis County a 13-3 lead with 2:28 left in the first quarter.

The Rocks answered with a 58-yard scoring toss from Alex Fabra to Ja'Kobe Cameron with 2:10 left in the opening quarter to make the score 13-10.

However, the Jaguars responded with a 47-yard scoring aerial of their own and a 61-yard touchdown run that pushed the score to 28-10 with 8:51 left in the first half.

Noel answered the bell again for the Rocks with a 50-yard field goal to cut the lead to 28-13 with 6:51 left in the second quarter.

The Jaguars answered with a 5-yard and 49-yard scoring run before intermission to make the score 42-13 at the break.

In the first half, the Jaguars rushed for 326 yards and threw for 110 yards.

In the second half, the Jaguars added a 68-yard scoring run with 11:40 to play to push the score to 48-13.

The Rocks managed to put another score on the board when Fabra hit Cameron for a 66-yard scoring toss with 9:51 to play that made the score 48-20.

The Jaguars rounded out the scoring returning the ensuing kickoff 93 yards for for touchdown to make the final tally 54-20.

SSC head coach Nate

Encrapera commented, "Tonight we played a team that featured 16 seniors who have been running the same schemes for the past four years and they have consistently been one of the best teams is the state. They are fast and athletic with a coaching staff that has been together for quite some time. We have to do a better job of getting in the right situations and conveying what the responsibilities are. We face another big and athletic team in Morton in the first round of the playoffs on the road."

In the game, Fabra threw for 174 yards and two touchdowns while Cameron caught three passes for 134 yards and two touchdowns. Ryan Tyler led the defense with 12 tackles followed by Joe Bradford with 10 stops.

The Rocks travel to Morton this week to take on the Panthers in the first round of the Class 3A state playoffs. Kick-off is set for 7 p.m.

game clock. The PAT kick failed but the touchdown was enough for the Biloxi win.

Miller led Hawks' rushers with 110 yards on 21 carries and a touchdown. Fowler finished with 79 yards on 11 carries and two touchdowns. King rushed for 59 yards on 8 carries and a touchdown.

King also completed six of 12 passes for 93 yards. Todd Dedeaux led Hawks' receivers with 3 receptions for 50 yards, followed by Fowler with 3 receptions for 40 yards. Miller had two receptions for 28 yards.

Jeffrey Hopgood led Hawks' defenders with 12 tackles, followed by Xavier Ganier with 11 tackles and Kristoff Ganier with 8 tackles. Ryder Island finished with 7 tackles, and Talley and Zachary Gullung each finished with 6 tackles.

The Hawks (3-7, 0-6, district) end their season on the road next Friday at Pascagoula.
